Tribeca Lighting, Inc. Theatrical Lighting Supplies Return to Canal Street

Conveniently located at 511 Canal Street sharing a storefront location with Lites On West Soho (architectural lighting supplier). Tribeca Lighting brings full service theatrical lighting rental and sales back to lower Manhattan. We believe that a thriving local arts community needs and deserves local resources. Tribeca Lighting is dedicated to supporting and being a part of our community.

Tribeca Lighting is a new shop of actively working designers and technicians started by Kyle Chepulis (president Technical Artistry) with Eva Pinney handling day-to-day operations and Brian Aldous as technical advisor. This dedicated team is available to provide a range of affordable solutions to any and every lighting situation, with an extensive on site stock and the ability to locate unique or custom items. Tribeca Lighting understands the demands of working in New York City and provides a wide range of services to meet the needs of lighting theatrical venues, productions, events and architectural spaces.

Sales

Tribeca Lighting is fully stocked for all of your lighting needs, both standard and special order. Tribeca Lighting wants to be your local resource, if there is something you need, let us know and we'll find it for you.

Rentals

Tribeca Lighting has a local inventory of lighting equipment for that immediate need and larger rentals can be picked up at our Canal Street location or trucked directly to your venue.

Services

Tribeca Lighting provides service calls and phone support for theatrical control and dimming systems. Tribeca Lighting offers color cutting services.

TriBeCa Lighting looks forward to serving the New York Theatrical community and to being your lighting source and resource.
